2A Iverna Court

Description

Available 12th of June.

A beautifully refurbished one-bedroom apartment with a separate study, set within the highly sought-after Iverna Court, an elegant red-brick mansion block with porter and lift, located moments from Kensington High Street.

Offering greater flexibility and space than a typical one-bedroom property, the apartment benefits from a separate study/home office, ideal for those working from home or requiring additional accommodation. Recently refurbished throughout, the property is presented in excellent condition and features a bright reception room, a contemporary kitchen with modern fittings, a stylish bathroom, a generous double bedroom and a separate study.

Iverna Court is a well-maintained mansion block situated on a quiet residential street in the heart of Kensington, just a short walk from the extensive shopping, dining and transport facilities of Kensington.
