In Detail

Situated within the well-regarded Juniper House on Pomeroy Street, this spacious three-bedroom apartment offers well-balanced accommodation, excellent natural light and a private outdoor space, all within easy reach of the vibrant amenities of Peckham and New Cross.

Occupying a desirable position within the development, the property benefits from a dual-aspect layout, creating bright and airy living spaces. The generous reception room provides ample space for both relaxing and entertaining, with direct access to a private terrace – an ideal spot for morning coffee or al fresco dining.

The modern fitted kitchen is thoughtfully designed with plenty of worktop and cupboard space, while three well-proportioned bedrooms offer flexibility for families, professionals working from home, or those seeking additional guest accommodation. Further benefits include excellent built-in storage throughout the flat, helping to maximise living space and practicality.

Residents also enjoy access to attractive communal gardens, providing additional outdoor space, as well as the convenience of off-street parking.

Offered chain free and combining generous proportions, outdoor space and a highly practical layout, this is a superb opportunity to acquire a bright and versatile home in a popular South East London location.
