Description

Coming soon to the market, this spacious and bright two-bedroom maisonette is currently undergoing full redecoration throughout, offering a fresh and modern finish ready for its new owners or tenants.

Benefiting from its own private entrance, the property offers well-proportioned accommodation including a generous living room, two good-sized bedrooms, a well-appointed kitchen, and bathroom. The light-filled interior creates a welcoming and airy feel throughout.

Externally, the property benefits from an allocated parking space, while its convenient location provides excellent access to the town centre, local amenities, and the train station, making it ideal for commuters and professionals alike.

Further photographs and viewing appointments will be available once the refurbishment has been completed.
