DESCRIPTION

Halls are delighted with instructions to offer this exciting development opportunity for sale by Private Treaty.

The building land to the rear of Purton Villa provides an excellent opportunity for purchasers to acquire a parcel of land extending to around 0.34 of an acre with Planning Permission and Reserved Matters approved (we are informed that a lawful commencement was made in February 2017 with email confirmation from Shropshire Council). for the construction of two detached dwellings in a particularly convenient tucked away village location.

The site is an irregular shaped parcel of land accessed from Church Steet via a private road, positioned between the rear garden of Purton Villa and the village playing field. The site is sloping (east to west) and is currently in an overgrown condition.

The proposed house on Plot One will have four bedrooms and the proposed house on Plot Two will have three bedrooms. both being split level to acknowledge the slope of the site, and both will be orientated towards the north west.

The proposed Plot One will have an integral garage and the proposed Plot Two will have a provision for a detached garage and both dwellings will have good sized gardens.

The sale of this conveniently positioned parcel of building land does, therefore, provide a rare opportunity for developers to acquire a a well positioned development site with planning permission and reserved matters approved.

SITUATION

The land is situated close to the centre of the popular village of Ruyton Xi Towns, which contains a number of amenities including a primary school, Cafe, and Church, whilst also being well placed for access to the larger centres of and Baschurch and Oswestry, with the county town of Shrewsbury lying within reasonable commuting distance.

PLANNING PERMISSION
