SITUATION

Holywell is a hamlet located in East Coker, home formerly of the poet T S Elliott and is located, near Yeovil, in Somerset, England. It's known for its historic former mill, now converted into residential properties. The area is semi-rural, offering a mix of village life and proximity to Yeovil.

Yeovil offers a wide range of excellent shopping, business and cultural facilities; there are many supermarkets, schools from primary through to secondary and Yeovil College within easy reach. Regular bus services run within the town also serving nearby villages and neighbouring towns. A mainline railway station will be found at Yeovil Junction, good road links to the A30, A303 and A37 are all close by. The M5 junction 25 is approximately 20 miles away and the South Coast approximately 25 miles.

OUTDOORS

The apartment has a large enclosed patio laid to block brick and patio slabs with ample room to display planted patio tubs and furnish with garden furniture. Beyond is a good size gravelled car parking space. An archway leads to the rear of the property where there is a communal entrance door and and a stream flowing under and alongside.
