It also has an original built-in dresser, with glazed upper doors. The lounge has patio door out onto a private paved courtyard at the back of the property. It has room for seating, and ample space for a family dining table and chairs. The main bedroom looks out over its own lawn, bordered by mature shrubs and trees. The family bathroom benefits from a three piece suite and an additional walk in shower. As a bonus, the flat owns the cupboard under the apartment block stairs, and this provides useful extra storage. Currently it houses the electric dryer.

Our Vendor Loves...

"I have always love the way Cheseman Court sits at the end of a quiet cul de sac - tucked away and so private - and yet so close to so many great amenities, shops and things to do. Kirkdale is packed with places to eat and drink and Forest Hill Library, Swimming Pool are literally just round the corner. The flat itself retains lots of the original 1930s features and feeling but with an updated look and feel. Its got big rooms and lots of space and a really private garden to boot. We really do think its a gem".
