DESCRIPTION

Halls are favoured with instructions to offer Station House in Baschurch for sale by private treaty.

The Station House is a Victorian former railway station understood to date to circa 1848 and initially serving the Shrewsbury to Chester line. The property enjoys a stuccoed red-sandstone facade completed in a Gothic style, thus affording the building a particularly attractive and appealing frontage within which lies an impressive circa 2,400 sq ft of flexibly arranged accommodation, all of which now requires comprehensive modernisation

The property sits within generous ground which extend, in all, to around 0.49ac, or thereabouts which, as per the property, provide excellent potential for landscaping or further development (STPP). Of some note, and also contained within the grounds, is the former water tower which bears the same striking architectural tone as the dwelling.

The proportions, location and grounds make the property an ideal project for buyers, with ample scope provided to take the property in a number of directions, be that as a striking village residence, a commercial enterprise, or for residential development (STPP).

SITUATION

Station House lies astride the rail-line on the perimeter of the popular village of Baschurch, which boasts a respectable range of day to day amenities, including Schools, Convenience Store, Restaurants, and Public Houses, whilst retaining a convenient proximity to the nearby towns of Ellesmere and Wem, which, between them, provide a wider range of facilities, including further schooling and a Supermarket. The thriving county centre of Shrewsbury sits around 9 miles to the south and offers buyers a more comprehensive suite of amenities, including cultural and artistic attractions.

SCHOOLING

Within a convenient proximity are a number of well-regarded educational establishments, including The Corbet School, Baschurch CofE Primary School, Lakelands Academy, Weston Lullingfields Primary, Ellesmere Primary School, Shrewsbury School, Shrewsbury High School, The Priory, Prestefelde Prep., Packwood Haugh, and Adcote School for Girls.

DIRECTIONS

From Shrewsbury, proceed north on the B5067 to the village of Baschurch. At the crossroads in the centre of the village turn right on to the Burlton/Myddle road and proceed for a short distance where, immediately before the level crossing turn right. Station House will be found on the right hand side, identified by a Halls For Sale board.

OUTSIDE

Station House lies astride the tracks within generous gardens which extend, in all, to 0.49ac, or thereabouts. At present, the grounds are given over to parking to the fore which leads on to an expanse of lawn retained within an established tree-lined boundary. The grounds offer excellent opportunities for landscaping in order to become superb and well proportioned gardens to serve the property, however, recent development close by may suggest to potential for on site development (STPP).

WATER TOWER

The former Water Tower (approx. 70 sq ft) lies to the north of the property and echoes the Gothic styling of the Station House. The tower, as per the main dwelling, offers scope for a variety of onward usages (STPP).
