LOCATION & SITUATION

Whitewalls is positioned off Station Road within Chirk, a historic and well-served border town close to the Welsh Hills and Shropshire border. Chirk offers shops, pubs, medical facilities, schooling and a railway station, while Chirk Castle, the Llangollen canal, Chirk aqueduct and surrounding countryside provide excellent walking, cycling and leisure opportunities.

Road: The A5 and A483 are easily accessible, providing convenient links towards Oswestry, Wrexham, Chester, Shrewsbury and the wider motorway network.

Rail: Chirk railway station is close by, offering services towards Chester and Shrewsbury with onward national connections, including London Euston.

Air: Manchester, Liverpool and Birmingham airports are all accessible by road, providing a range of domestic and international flights.

Schools: Local schooling is available in Chirk, with Ellesmere College, Moreton Hall, Oswestry School and Shrewsbury School within wider reach.

Sporting: Nearby leisure includes Chirk Castle, canal walks, the Dee and Ceiriog valleys, Lion Quays, golf, fishing, cycling and equestrian pursuits.

WHITEWALLS

Whitewalls is a handsome Grade II listed Arts & Crafts residence occupying a mature setting within Chirk. Extending to approximately 3,679 sq ft, with garaging bringing the total to approximately 4,000 sq ft, the house combines architectural character, generous family accommodation and established gardens. Its position offers privacy and convenience, within easy reach of village amenities, road links and the railway station.

THE ACCOMMODATION

The accommodation is arranged over three floors and has been thoughtfully presented to balance period character with practical family living. The reception hall gives access to the principal ground floor rooms, including an elegant drawing room with a wide garden-facing window, fireplace, detailed joinery and attractive parquet flooring. A further sitting room and separate dining room provide excellent flexibility for entertaining and everyday use, while the study offers a useful home-working space.

The kitchen/dining room forms the practical heart of the house, fitted with painted cabinetry, dark stone work surfaces, a range cooker and doors opening towards the garden. The room is well suited to family life, with space for informal dining and direct connection to the outside terrace and lawns. A utility room, cloakroom, workshop, garage and carport provide valuable ancillary accommodation, storage and day-to-day practicality.

On the first floor are four bedrooms, including the principal bedroom with en suite facilities, together with further bath and shower room accommodation serving the remaining rooms. The proportions are generous, with attractive outlooks over the gardens and established trees. The second floor provides two additional bedrooms and a central sitting room, creating an ideal area for children, guests, hobbies or further home-working. The overall layout is both substantial and adaptable, offering the space, privacy and flexibility required for modern family life while retaining the charm and architectural interest expected of a listed Arts & Crafts home. Throughout, the house has a warm and individual feel, with feature glazing, fireplaces, ceiling detailing and carefully chosen finishes adding to the sense of character.

GARDENS & GROUNDS

The gardens form an important part of Whitewalls' appeal. To the rear, a broad paved terrace sits directly off the house, creating an excellent space for outdoor dining and entertaining. Beyond are established lawns, mature trees, planted borders and enclosed areas suited to family use. The front approach provides a strong sense of arrival, with a wide gravelled driveway, ample parking, garage, workshop and carport. The overall setting feels private, mature and well connected to the house.

In addition to the main garden areas, the grounds also include raised beds and a greenhouse, providing a useful area for gardening and outdoor use. There is also a substantial timber outbuilding, understood to be the original garage, which provides valuable additional storage.
