A superb and spacious two double bedroom flat on the first floor of this popular purpose-built block, tucked away in a quiet residential close just off Ossulton Way. Beautifully presented throughout, the property is offered in excellent decorative condition with modern furnishings. Comprising a spacious double reception room with bay window overlooking the peaceful garden square, original parquet flooring, a fully fitted kitchen with modern appliances including a dishwasher, two double bedrooms and a contemporary tiled bathroom. Ideally located moments from East End Road shops and bus routes, with East Finchley Underground Station (Northern Line) and local cafés, restaurants and amenities all within easy walking distance. Further benefits include attractive communal gardens and ample residents' parking within the close on a first come, first served basis. Ideally suited to a professional couple, two professional sharers or a small family, and conveniently located for the highly regarded Brookland School. Early viewing is strongly recommended.
