SCHOOLS

Families are well served by a strong choice of schools in and around Newtown

Several primary options lie within easy reach, including Ysgol Dafydd Llwyd, a well regarded Welsh medium school, and Maesyrrhandir C.P. School, both situated on the western side of town.

Ysgol Calon y Dderwen, close to the town centre, offers another accessible primary alternative

For older pupils, Newtown High School provides comprehensive secondary education for ages 11-18, while Brynlywarch Hall School in nearby Kerry offers specialist provision in a supportive rural setting

DESCRIPTION

The property occupies an elevated position with open views across the local community hall and the surrounding Welsh countryside, which feels like a natural extension to the front and rear gardens

Inside, the house is light, airy and well cared for, with generously proportioned rooms throughout. It suits family life just as well as those seeking a comfortable base for working from home

A large wood burning stove in the lounge, complemented by oil fired central heating, keeps the home warm and welcoming through the coldest Welsh winters, while in warmer months, doors from both the lounge and dining room open directly onto the rear terrace

The self-contained annexe adds valuable flexibility, making it ideal for multi-generational living, visiting family, guests, or as a potential source of holiday let income. The annexe comprises a bedroom, bathroom, kitchen/dining room, and reception room, providing comfortable and independent accommodation.

Distinctive in appearance with timber cladding to the first floor, it features double patio doors from the driveway into a spacious kitchen diner, with a comfortable living room and an adjacent ensuite bedroom above.

If preferred, the annexe could be seamlessly re incorporated into the main house.

EXTERNALLY

To the front of the house, there is ample driveway parking alongside a gently sloping lawn, creating an open and welcoming approach to the property

To the rear, a paved courtyard provides a low maintenance space for outdoor seating, with steps leading up to a gravelled garden framed by lawn and mature shrubs; an area that offers excellent scope for a floral garden or vegetable plot

For those who enjoy practical space, the carport is a real asset; it is wide enough to accommodate a large EV and ideal for anyone needing a workshop area, additional storage or potentially as a sheltered outside area for entertaining
