In Detail

A two double bedroom freehold house forming part of a leafy woodland development close to central Crystal Palace.

Arranged over two levels, this property offers a blank canvas for a new owner to personalise and put their own stamp on. The entrance level comprises of a separate kitchen (others have been opened to the living space) and a light and bright reception room with two doors to outside. Also, a double-height winter garden which allows for lots of natural light and provides two useable spaces accessed via the main living area and bedrooms above. In addition to the bedrooms upstairs there is a bathroom, a separate WC and access to attic storage space.

Externally the garden benefits from mature planting, a sunny south westerly aspect and side access

Spinney Gardens is close to both Crystal Palace and Gipsy Hill rail links, as well as the many independent shopping and leisure options that are clustered around the Triangle.

The development has been awarded a number of accolades since build completion for design and energy efficiency, and is a more interesting place to call home.
