The Property

The former Horse and Groom public house is a handsome detached period home, sympathetically converted, updated, and beautifully presented throughout, offering generous and versatile accommodation extending to some 2,777 sq. ft.

Rich in history and character, this splendid home retains many original features, including exposed ceiling beams, leaded pane windows, wood flooring, and an attractive fireplace housing a wood-burning stove. The ground floor provides superb living space, with three well-proportioned reception rooms—currently arranged as a sitting room, snug, and formal dining room—together with a well-appointed kitchen, separate utility room, and a shower room.

To the first floor, there are four comfortable double bedrooms, three of which benefit from fitted storage. The principal bedroom is of particular note, with its en suite shower room and a beautiful roll top bath, creating a luxurious retreat. The remaining bedrooms are served by a stylish family bathroom. A further staircase rises to the second floor, where a flexible additional room is currently arranged as a fifth bedroom, though it would equally lend itself to a playroom or home office.

Externally, the property is complemented by an enclosed garden offering both privacy and seclusion, together with a detached double garage providing secure parking and storage.

Since taking ownership, the current vendors have tastefully enhanced the property, successfully blending its period character and former inn heritage with modern family living.
