The current owner says:

Willow & Verde is ideally located within walking distance of Ealing Broadway's vibrant town centre, where you'll find boutique shops, bars, and an array of restaurants. Transport connections, including the Elizabeth Line, Central Line, and District Line, place central London and beyond within easy reach, as well as the A40, A4 and A306 for road communications.

Willow and Verde, a stunning new development of 2 & 3 bedroom properties in Ealing Broadway of 14 new apartments across two attractive detached properties.

Located on Gordon Road, a short walk to Haven Green and Ealing Broadway tube station, this development has been delivered by a leading local developer, with a contemporary finish to a high standard throughout.

There is off street parking to selected units and the specification includes contemporary kitchens with two tone cabinetry, Herringbone wood floors, elegant paneling and modern conveniences such as Lutron lighting, modern bathrooms and new windows and doors.

A well located property on a tree lined road, it offers easy access to local restaurants, bars and transport links including Dickens Yard, The Filmworks and Ealing Broadway shopping centre. The A40 and M4 are nearby for road communications into and out of London.
