"What we've enjoyed most about living here is how quiet and peaceful it feels. The flat has a lot of character and a unique vibe, making it a lovely place to relax and work from. Being less than five minutes from Crystal Palace Park has been a highlight – it's our favourite park in London, with its beautiful space, fantastic weekend food market, and new improvements. Despite feeling very tucked away, it's really close to transport links, Crystal Palace Triangle, and Sydenham".
